WESTERY YOUNG MAN IN DANGER

Suddenly Stricken with Acute Appendicitis and Hurried to New London Hospital—Death of Mrs. Sarah A.
Burdick—Trial of Mandeville Hall Next Week.

The superior court for Washington county convenes at Kingston next Monday, and jurors will be summoned on Tuesday this week for the grand and petit juries. There will be two Western cases before the grand jury, the most important being that of the state against Mandeville Hall, alias Charles W. Stevens, of New York. He is charged with the issue of fraudulent checks on the Fifth Avenue bank, New York city, upon Adolph E. Dick, manager of the New Watch Hill house.
He was captured at Narragansett Pier by Chief Brandt and a New York detective agency. He waived examination in the Third district court.
Judge J. Williams, pleading not guilty, and in default of bond was committed to the Washington county jail. He is a well known New York family and has been in several sensational escapades.

While in the Washington county jail he was detected by Sheriff Wilcox attempting to saw his way to liberty by the cutting of the bars of his cell. The discharged prisoner who furnished the saw is now in jail and will be tried at the September session of the court.

The other Western case for the grand jury was that against Albert Carson, charged with maintaining a liquor nuisance. There are several cases Western for the petit jury.

George Traggis was suddenly attacked with stomach trouble while at work Tuesday morning and a physician was summoned by his uncle, N. J. Traggis.
After an examination it was decided that the young man had an acute attack of appendicitis, and required immediate treatment, as his life was endangered. Within twenty minutes after the physician arrived young Traggis was on the train bound to New London, where he will be operated upon in the Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Sarah A. Burdick, who has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Edward C. Burdick, at 141 Canal street, died early Tuesday morning on her 75th birthday. She was a member of the Broad Street Christian church and was very favorably known in Westery and vicinity.

Mrs. Burdick is survived by two daughters and a brother, Mr. Edward C. Burdick, of Westery, also by four sisters, Mrs. Robert J. Burdick, formerly Chapman of Wakefield, Mrs. Mary Gallup of Villisco, Iowa, and Mrs. Mary Gallup of Yantic.

The Kingston fair opened Tuesday with a large attendance, and this year's event promises to be the equal of any that preceded. The judges were busy during the day awarding premiums for exhibits. The real fair begins today and will continue until Friday evening.

At the session of the Rhode Island republican state central committee in Providence, Tuesday, the mid-board of officers were re-elected. Mr. C. W. selected as the date and the place for the state convention.

AFTER SUFFERING TEN YEARS

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

MARLTON, N. J.—I feel that Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has given me new life.

I suffered for ten years with serious female troubles, inflammation, ulceration, indigestion, nervousness, and could not sleep. Doctors gave me up, as they said my troubles were chronic. I was in despair, and did not care whether I lived or died, when I read about Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; so I began to take it, and am well again and relieved of all my suffering. Mrs.
George Jordy, Box 40, Marlton, N. J.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass. From women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration.

Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

Legacy for Another Convict.
Following the announcement last week that Frederick A. S. Perry, an insane life prisoner at the prison in Wetherfield, had fallen heir to upwards of $70,000, comes the statement that Harry Sebastian, another convict who is serving a term of from six to ten years, will receive $1,000, left by the will of his mother, Mrs. Roxana Sebastian, who died in New York city about a month ago. Sebastian is a music teacher in Stamford and was sentenced in 1907 for a criminal assault upon one of his pupils, a girl under 16 years old. His mother spent most of her property in his defense and left him the balance upon her death.

CHILD HAD 60 BOILS
And Suffered Annually with a Red Scald-Like Humor on Her Head.

TROUBLES CURED BY CUTICURA

"When my little Vivian was about six months old her head broke out in boils. She had about sixty in all and I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which cured her entirely. Sometime later a humor broke out behind her ears and spread up on to her head until it was nearly half covered. The humor looked like a scald, very red with a sticky, clear fluid coming from it. This occurred every spring. I always used Cuticura Soap and Ointment which never failed to heal it up. The last time it broke out it became so bad that I was discouraged. But I continued the use of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent until she was well and has never been troubled in the last two years. Mrs. M. A. Schwerin, 674 Spring Wells Ave., Detroit, Mich., Feb. 24, '05."
